THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE A.GOPAL REDDY

WRIT PETITION No.17527 OF 2004

O R D E R:

On cancellation of the petitioner's authorization to run the fair price shop at Cherukuvaripalli, the petitioner preferred an appeal before the Joint Collector. On dismissal of the appeal, she filed revision before the District Collector and pending the revision, a notification was issued calling the eligible candidates to fill up the vacancy of fair price shop dealer. Therefore, she filed the present writ petition contending that though this Court in WP.No.28519 of 1998 directed the respondents therein not to issue any notification calling for applications to fill up the vacancy on permanent basis till the aggrieved person exhausted the remedies, the Commissioner of Civil Supplies issued the impugned notification, which is arbitrary and illegal.

This Court while admitting the writ petition, passed an interim order stating that any appointment made pursuant to the impugned notification should be subject to further orders in the writ petition.

Learned Government Pleader now represented that the revision filed by the petitioner has been dismissed.

In view of the same, the cause in the writ petition has become infructuous. The petitioner if aggrieved by dismissal of the revision, she is at liberty to challenge the same and obtain necessary orders thereon.

The writ petition is accordingly dismissed as infructuous. There shall be no order as to costs.
